

Mark Samuelian Award in Urban Resilience
Residential Resilience Project ('Project')
2023 Application

Applicant Name: _____ Email: _____ Phone: _____

Project name (if any): _____ Address: _____

County (x): Miami-Dade __ Broward __ Palm Beach __ Monroe __ Collier __ Hendry __ Lee __

Was the Project part of a new building construction? Yes __ No __

Project description (250 word max): _____

Date Project completed: _____ (If completed after June 1, 2023, do not continue. Apply next year)

Is this a residential building? Yes __ No __ (if No, do not continue)

Is this a hotel, dormitory, or transient-occupied building? Yes __ No __ (if Yes, do not continue)

Type of building: single-family home __ 2/3-family home __ condominium __ apartments __

Number of floors: _____ Conditioned space (sf): _____ Year built: _____ Year renovated: _____

Elevation of first occupied floor (ft, NAVD): _____

Project architect: _____ Engineer: _____

Contractor(s): _____

Major Supplier(s) _____ Advisor(s): _____

Explain benefits:

1. How does the Project improve resistance to wind, water & fire hazards? _____

2. How easily can the Project be duplicated on other properties? _____

3. How can the Project be applied to a wide range of income levels? _____

4. What are the Project's environmental benefits (energy, carbon, air quality, urban heat etc)? _____

5. Describe the community benefits generated by the Project (preservation, recreation etc)? _____

Please attach photos and other documentation in support of this application.

By signing, I affirm that the information in this application is correct, to the best of my knowledge. I agree that the decision as to any award lies solely with the Mark Samuelian Award Committee and that its decisions are final.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Print full name: _____

Location: _____